Reservations:

Active-Duty and Reservist personnel and Commands may make a reservation up to 12 months in advance.

All other individuals and sponsored groups can make a reservation up to six months in advance of stay. All group reservations require an advance deposit equal to first night's stay, payable at time of reservation. Upon check-in, payment in full is due for all reservations. Individual room reservations may be made up to 60 days in advance. This is to grant entire lodge reservations priority.

Cancellations for group reservations made more than 30 days in advance will be granted a full refund, less than 30-days advance notice will result in loss of first night's deposit.

Pets:

Pets are not allowed in the Lodge. A $150 cleaning fee will be charged if it is thought that you had a pet during your stay.

Base Access:

For guests without military identification, our dedicated staff will assist you in all base-access procedures. Jim Creek Navy Community Recreation Area is a 100% ID-check facility. Valid military ID card holders may escort up to five people. All vehicle operators must show a valid driver's license, current vehicle registration, current license plate tags and proof of insurance to the security gate guard. A Foreign National is defined as any person other than a U.S. citizen, U.S. permanent or temporary legal resident alien or person in U.S. custody. The Foreign National's installation government sponsor shall submit a request to the CO, with the Foreign National's personal information, ten working days in advance of arrival. For large groups, base access may be obtained through applications of the SECNAV5512/1 form for vetting.
